HOCKEY TEAMS TIE AFTER EXTRA PERIOD

Irish-Americans Weaken in Final Minutes of Play and Opponents Close Gap.

ALL HONORS TO LEWIS

Work at Goal a Revelation-Game Hard Fought from Start to Finish.

In an overtime period teams representing the Hockey Club of New York and the Irish-American Athletic Club played The final score was a single goal for each side, leaving the race in the Amateur Bockey League championship series as much in doubt as ever. As the ituation now stands, St. Nicholas coninues to lead, with four won and two Crescent Athletic Club, winner of the title

There are those who contend that the Irish-American team is the hard luck embination of the league. Certainly the goddess was not with the Green and White seven last night, for, after sceping the rival side scoreless, it weakned with only thirty seconds left to play. Furthermore, leaving aside the goal tendi.e. the Irish team easily outplayed the Hockey Club.

In the first half Lewis, the guardian of the Hockey Club's cage, stopped no less than thirteen shots, as against ten for Mitchell on the other end, while in second twenty-minute session the differnce was even more noticeable. Lewis locking eleven and Mitchell two. Hockey Club's goalkeeper warded off ten ore shots, as against four for his rival, n the extra period.

It can therefore be seen that the honor: belong to Lewis. He was a host in himself. It mattered not whether the puc time at him high or low, the net result frish team carried the contest into the Hockey Club's ice: consequently as little surprise when Garon and Har as the result of clever team work scored for their side after a trifle more than five minutes.
